 My mother is the ideal lady of my life. I would like to see myself be like my mother independent, strong and kind. I want to make my mother proud and let her know that what she did for us meant something special.

 I am a girl from lower family, as my father being a paralysis patient can do nothing for the family. At the moment my mother is only the one who is taking all the responsibility there is no one to help her. Beside my mother has been looking after her father and her small brother and bearing all the expenses of them too.
 When I knew there is such NGO that provides opportunities to the needy family I was very happy and I applied. If I were given this opportunity it will help my mother and me indirectly as her responsibility towards me will be little lighter. So now I am waiting for a Guardian Angel please do come to help me. I will be heartily thankful.
