 I really am in a very critical situation, my father is no more there to help me and my mother does not have any income source. Right now my eldest brother who works as tourist guide pays for my education and needs. But the present situation of our country has brought difficulties in his earning which has made him difficult in paying for the living as well as for my education. This could hamper my studies very badly, which I don't want it to happen. I really don't want to get break from my studies. Knowing my condition I hope there will come someone to help me to let me out of this problem. I am praying hard.
