 I was born in Solukhumbu district. I am 13 years old boy. We are only three members in my family. We are temporarily living in Salleri-2 Serkakhop. We don't have our own house and land so; we are living in rental room. My father has broken his leg before 3 years ago. He hardly got his treatment by collecting donation and taking loans from others. My mother is a farmer and grows potatoes but that is not enough facing problem and troubles. I have many friends in Serkakhop and they go to school. I also wanted to go to school with my friends but my parents didn't send me school. I cried and went school by escaping with my parents. I didn't this many times and they were compelled to admit me in school. I am found of going to school as education is the most important thing for human life. My mother doesn't provide me those basic needs for school because of their poverty.
