 I live in the high hilly region of Nepal in Solukhumbu district of Tamakhani village. My parents main occupation is farming. However we don't have enough land. The land that we have also not so fertile to grow different spices of crops. So, my parents go to work for others. From the working they get some money and some time they don't get work. We all brothers and sisters go to School but we don't have chance to go to School regularly. Some time we also have to go to work for others to earn money for our family and if we do not go to work my parents can't provide food and clothing. As a result we get low marks in the examination. I want to tell you another story of my family, By doing hard work by my parents they built a small house but it was caught by fire last month and now we don't have any shelter to live. We are living now in bamboo hut which is belonging to my relative, They are also poor so they also may not help us for long time. Me and my family living with very difficult.
