My grandparents owned some land but grand ma had kept it after grand pa dead. So, my parents had to rent a land for agriculture production for the family. So, they are always quarrel each other on the issue of for not being able to support our Education and always feel guilty. I want to study hard to make my parents proud of me. I have applied for Scholarship to reduce my parent's financial burden. This might help to create better family environment in our family. We don't want to see our parents always fighting being felt of not being able to support enough for our Education and childhood.
