There are 8 family members in my family. My mummy is engaged in farming and all my siblings are studying now. I am studying very far away from my village in order to study too. In my family, mother is earning and that is only enough for hand to mouth. So that my mummy can't spend her income in our studies. She hardly sells some mild product by bringing others and earns a little money. Then she pays such amount of money for my sisters' fee. So, my poor and weak family background that forced me to apply for scholarship. As the oldest child of the family, I wish to study very well and want to bring a new change; also I want to fulfill all my family crisis and happiness to my mother.

As I am from poor family and helpless boy. My father died four years ago. Because of the death of my father a great crisis entered in my family. My mummy is living a miserable life. Other siblings are also very young and helpless too, so that I want to continue my study and play a vital role for all my siblings as well as my widow mother. I hope you will consider my serious problem and I may walk to the right directions.
