 My family members contain my parents and my one younger and one elder sister. My papa works for a trekking office, earning just enough to support for basic expenses and since he does 3-4 times of Trek per year. His income can be limited for household expenses and thus, it is tough to manage for me and my sister's education. My elder sister also was a scholarship holder from HIPRON and that helped my family lot in my papa, in his responsibilities. So, I have applied for the scholarship with the scope that It can again support my family in continuing my education ahead. I am a good student and I have been scoring good marks in my studies with above 80% with 1st /2nd or 3rd rank. My class mates are 60s in number and my school is one of the good schools and I consider myself a talented and I am confident in my studies, so do not discontinue because of weak economic status of my family. My parents are struggling a lot to educate me but the higher the study, higher is the fees which are being hard just to compromise. I need financial support as well as mentally free environment without stressed out condition to boost my career.

12) Write about your PRESENT situation:
 I am studying class 9 and I am good in my studies. I am first girl to score highest marks in any subjects. I am also good in extracurricular activities. I am good in debates, speech, games and I enjoy my works. I am also punctual and disciplined student. Now, that I have grade to class 9 and in higher class. My annual fees are relatively higher. My parents are worried if they can help me further more and bear the fees which are beyond my papa's income. I am getting admitted just because I am a good student and my scores are batter. My fees need to be cleared up as soon as possible or I have to sacrifice my education.

13) Write about your FUTURE plan:
 I've aimed to clear my SLC first and only if then I hope to study medicine. I'm good at math, science, Health and English and I heartily hope to be a good doctor, because my interest in medicine is high.
