12) Write about your PRESENT situation:

There are nine members in my family. We have small piece of land and it is not enough for our all member in the family. Most of the time of the year we have to work of others for our basic needs and sometimes we do not have any job in the village at that time it is most difficult for our parents and for us. In that case my parents use to borrow some money from others as loan with high interest. In this way we are sustaining our life with poverty and difficulties. My parents do not have enough money to pay in the school for my stationery and for our other needs. Whenever we ask something for our parents they became very sad on it. So I am supporting them by accepting our poverty. In my holiday and after finished my homework I use to help them to work in the field or grazing goats etc.

13) Write about your FUTURE plan:
